Sir:

RESPONSIVE TO THE OFFICE ACTION OF AUGUST 27, 2003

In view of the fact that the Examiner would not accept the previously submitted full rewrite of the specification, counsel is hereby submitting an amended substantially rewritten version of this application. The case incorporates large chunks of the parent application along with much of the previously unaccepted material of counsel's previous reply.

The fee of $130, the current fee for the change of inventorship is enclosed.

It is regretted that the Examiner did not accept the substitute specification in its entirety. Apparently, she did not realize there was no marked-up copy due to the fact that the pro se applicant failed to retain one. Be that as it may, a marked-up copy of the old case, and the mode of interpretation are shown.

Please change the title, also previously attempted, to: "Forearm Edge Rest". Plexiglas has been deleted.
